

AGAINST ALL ODDS

Ex-Prisoner/Gang Member, Human/Prisoners Rights Activist
Inspirational/Motivational Speaker, International Hip Hop Artist, and Journalist

www.305375.com

www.capital-x.com

Bringing Hope To The Hopeless And Inspiration To All By Sharing His Dreams, Hopes, True Life Personal Experiences And Continued Achievements.

"One person can make a difference and every person should try." John F. Kennedy

AGAINST ALL ODDS

Introducing Capital-"X" International Speaker, Human Rights/Prisoner Activist, Hip Hop Artist

Capital-X Speaks at Katedralskole Gimle, Kristiansand, Norway

Capital-"X" has overcome some of the most difficult obstacles that threaten our youth today. As a youngster he dealt with racism and bullying which lead him into joining one of the most notorious street gangs in the United States. As a gang member he was forced to partake in criminal activities which drove him to use drugs and alcohol all to be accepted. His life on the streets which took the lives of most all of his childhood friends lead him to prison where he spent a total of thirteen years. Within his struggles he finally emerged the notable speaker, activist and performer he is today.

Capital X has been hailed as one of the most ardent and socially conscious speakers and activists of the new Millennium. He is a dedicated social activist that brings varying talents and expertise to provide a wealth of knowledge, insight and solutions oriented strategies for audiences, young and older. Capital X has galvanized and inspired audiences from across the US to Europe.

Capital X is a critically acclaimed Hip Hop artist, human/prisoners rights activist, prison reform advocate, death penalty opponent and a public speaker focusing on an array of topics such, but not limited to, Motivation, believing in ones self and overcoming obstacles such as peer pressure, bullying, racism, drug and alcohol addiction, gangs and violence. He also speaks on the abolishment of the death penalty, the US prison industrial complex and juvenile justice issues.

Capital X is from the Golden Era of Hip Hop that inspired many activists. Coming from this Era allows him to connect well with audiences of all ages. Capital-X confronts serious issues in a manner that fascinates and inspires as his listeners relate to the vast amount of personal life experiences he has survived. Capital-X is eager to come to your school or organization's event in an effort to galvanize, motivate and empower the audience. Please do not hesitate to inquire on arranging for Capital-X to attend and or host your next event or program.

Booking info is: +4792046243 and/or 305375@gmail.com

Capital-"X" was born in Brooklyn, New York. His parents migrated to New York from Puerto Rico during the "Great Migration" in the 1950's after Puerto Rico's official status was changed to "Commonwealth". He is a very strong opponent of capitol punishment. Capital-"X" now spends most of his time traveling across the US as well as over seas speaking and performing to educate and enlighten the masses on what many scholars call the "New Jim Crow" (the US prison industry complex).

Raised in the streets and in prison, Capital-"X" turned his life around and now through his music he calls Reality Hip Hop, or Raptivism he reaches out to help at risk youth and prisoners alike. A strong supporter for death row inmates, and activist for prisoners rights, Capital-"X" brings awareness to people and hope to prisoners and their families through his music and lyrics. www.305375.com www.capital-x.com

Available For: Lectures, Motivational Speeches, Workshops, and Hip Hop Performances:

Ideal for but not limited to: Schools (elementary to high school), University's, Conferences and benefits, Juvenile Detention Centers, Jails, Prisons and Drug Programs. Speaks English and Spanish. Contact us at +4792046243 and/or at 305375@gmail.com with any questions.